

Tally-Ho Music Camp

LIVONIA, NEW YORK - R. D. 2

SUNDAY EVENING CONCERT

6:45 P.M.

AUGUST 10, 1952

Guest conductor, FREDERICK FENNEL, Conductor of Junior Symphony Orchestra, Little Symphony Orchestra, Concert Band, Eastman School of Music, University of Rochester. Mr. Fennell has conducted the Boston Pope Orchestra in the Esplanade, the summer Opera Series in Houston, Texas, and recently made his debut as conductor of the Cleveland Symphony Orchestra.

PROGRAM

Camp Song	Alford
March-Old Comrades	Tieke
Overture to the Opera "Rienzi"	Wagner
Slavonic Dance No. 6 in A Flat Major	Dvorak
Tally-Ho! March	Fennell
Lowering of the Colors

Orchestra and chorus conducted by JOSEPH B. HENRY, conductor of the Hillel Little Symphony Orchestra, Rochester, New York

How Lovely Is Thy Dwelling Place (from "The Requiem")	Brahms
chorus
Symphony No. 104	Haydn
Adagio-Allegro	Minuetto
Andante	Allegro spiritoso
	orchestra

Woodland Sketches	MacDowell
To A Wild Rose	To A Water-Lily
Will O' The Wisp	From Uncle Remus
At An Old Trysting Place	A Deserted Farm
In Autumn	By A Meadow Brook
From An Indian Lodge	Told At Sunset

Overture 1812	Tschaikovsky
-------------------------	--------------

This evening's concert closes the fifth season of Tally-Ho Music Camp. Operating as a non-profit educational endeavor on behalf of the young people who are attracted to it, Tally-Ho is dependent upon the generosity of its friends for continued operation inasmuch as tuition fees do not cover the cost of operation. Previous Sunday contributions this season have totaled $351.99, to be used toward scholarships next year. Tally-Ho needs and welcomes your support.